RALPH NODDIN, CUHS TEACHER FINISHES 32 CONSECUTIVE YEARS AT CAMPBELL ON JULY 1, 1953

Ralph Noddin, Campbell High school physics teacher and mentor of many championship CUHS basketball teams, was honored last week at "Ralph Noddin" day to commemorate his retirement July 1, after 32 consecutive teaching years at Campbell High School.

The beloved physics teacher, is perhaps best remembered by his former students, and teaching colleagues, for his pioneering efforts on behalf of Campbell High School athletics. Noddin, who came to Campbell High in October 1921, when athletics were among the least important items of the teaching curriculum was appointed director of athletics which included forming, and coaching all teams. He was especially noted for turning out championship basketball teams.

Sammy Reed, principal of Santa Cruz Junior High School, one of Noddin's former pupils, and one of the speakers at "Ralph Noddin" day at the High School last week, recalled how, in 1924, Noddin, with some of his students and with the help of civic minded residents, built the school gymnasium. The High School at that time, old timers will remember, was located across the street from its present location, where a local market now stands.

Other speakers at the high school assembly were Alice Jones, student body manager, and past student body president; and John Meschke, president of Campbell Union High School teacher's club. At the conclusion of the special assembly Noddin received a camera, projector and light meter from the student body and faculty in appreciation of his long teaching career.

While at Campbell Noddin has taught physics, chemistry, biology, geology and pre-flight aeronautics as well as physical education. He had also been director of extra curricular activities.

Noddin, who was born in Sonoma County, raised in Madeira County, attended Clovis High School, received a B. S. degree from University of California, an M. S. degree from Stanford University. He attended five summer schools at University of Calif. at Davis, Southern California and at Ontario.

He served in France with allied forces during World War I.

In 1919 he married Pernilla Nelson, daughter of Peter G. Nelson, pioneer resident of Union district. The couple now live at Harwood Ave. in Union District, near Blossom Hill.

Before coming to Campbell, Noddin taught at Tulare High School, in 1916-17 and at Roseville in 1920-21.

When asked his future plans, Noddin said his wife had a two-year backlog of work around his home which included painting, window fixing, kitchen repairs and building a garage, that would have to be taken care of before doing any of the many thing he enjoys.

In his free time Noddin likes to pan for gold around the gold Lake region near Feather River, camping, and fishing which he does every summer, thumbing through his books on birds, or sorting, and otherwise putting in order his collection of minerals from previous geological, ornithological, and educational excursions.

Next spring, Noddin says, he and his wife, will take a trip to the Southern United States to visit some of the desert country—the Grand Canyon and other scenic points of interest.

Noddin is a member of Campbell Kiwanis Club, International Odd Fellows, and Campbell Post 56, the American Legion.

The jobs that come in cans

The American Can Company hasn't yet worked out a practical container for packing jobs and economic security. We make cans—we do no canning.

But, by making better cans, we have actually created job opportunities in many different fields.

All kinds of things—foods and beverages, paints and varnishes, tobacco and tennis balls—keep better, are more convenient and easier to use when they are packed in the right kind of container.

So, markets for these products expand. Thousands of new, well-paid jobs open up, and incomes climb.

In fact, whole new businesses have been able to get started because a suitable can was developed to hold a product. You probably know of manufacturing plants right in California that owe their existence to the industry.

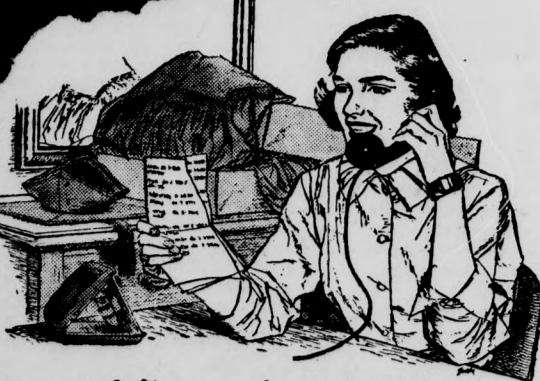

Creating new jobs is only one example of what America has accomplished in our free, competitive way of doing business. People working together, playing together and living together bring social and economic gains to all.

And such teamwork between our people and our business system promises greater prosperity and more jobs for our future.

 REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS
TENTH DISTRICT, CALIFORNIA

As Washington becomes hotter and stickier I would like to head for the Redwoods, but since that is impossible, the Santa Cruz County Chamber of Commerce has done the next best thing. They have brought the Redwoods to me. Last week a beautifully polished Redwood "planter" with an appropriately engraved gold name plate arrived from the Santa Cruz Chamber. Embedded in its center is a Redwood burl which already shows shoots about an eighth of an inch long. It creates a great deal of interest in my office and furnishes the ideal opening for a lecture on the merits of the Tenth District—to say nothing of the inner satisfaction it provides a died-in-the-wool farmer who loves to watch things grow. Actually there are only 4 men in the whole Congress of the United States who can boast of a stand of Sequoia Sempervirens (Coastal Redwoods) in their district. Since I am one of them I intend to make maximum use of my Redwood burl and hope to become a one man Chamber of Commerce on the banks of the Potomac.

Last week I had a most pleasant interview with Postmaster General Summerfield, currently running the largest business in the world which employs more than a half million people—the post office. In the 1952 fiscal year the post office of this country lost almost $2,000,000 each day as the postal deficit reached $727,000,000. Reducing this deficit will mean adjustment of postal rates, particularly in second and third class matter where greatest losses are incurred. . . . the Post Office Department uses in excess of 1500 different forms in delivering the mail—it might be that less forms would mean less deficit.

RANDOM NOTES ABOUT WASHINGTON—Common sight on the street is a District of Columbia license plate with the letters "DPL", meaning Diplomatic Corps. It is rumored that these plate holders are almost immune to arrest. My California plates are "CIO", meaning "Congressman 10th District". My old plates were "A29", meaning Assemblyman, 29th District. The green "A" indicated the traditional color of the Assembly chamber, while a State Senator had a red "S" which is the traditional color of that body—incidentally, our plates cost the same as anybody else's. . . . a well known nationally syndicated columnist recently publicized that a group of congressmen on a Navy cruise did not pay for their meals. I don't like to argue with the press, but that statement of account on my plate the last morning aboard wasn't a mirage. . . . the 10.69 inches of rainfall in Washington for the month of May tied the all-time record for May in 1889. I still haven't watered my lawn and here it is the middle of June.

DID YOU KNOW THAT . . . if the Queen of England were to visit Washington she could only be received in the Senate chamber since according to custom, a British sovereign cannot enter the lower house. . . . A Representative in Congress from a territory is called a Delegate while a Representative from Puerto Rico is called a Commissioner. . . . in 1789 a member of the House represented 60,000 people. By 1910 this had risen to 194,000; today each member represents about 350,000—a heavy responsibility, not without its headaches, but nevertheless a satisfying experience.

Hot mulled wine was enjoyed by the English in the 16th century and has remained a popular cold-weather drink.

When we came to the West, we found out . . .

Gas and electricity are cheap in California

say the John Brodas, of San Jose

How P. G. and E.'s low rates save
the Brodas money

In their comfortable San Jose home, the Brodas use these appliances to make life more pleasant:

The Brodas' P. G. and E. bill (recent month) $8.57

In their former home the same amount of electricity and gas would cost . . . $16.02

In 1951, when they came to California, the Brodas discovered the low cost of gas and electricity here. Like many other newcomers, they pay far less for these utilities than in their former home. Actually P. G. and E. rates are lower than in 1938. Let this bargain gas and electricity lighten your work, add to your leisure.

Sue Miller Is Named Official Of Republicans

G. Conrad Baker, precinct chairman of the Santa Clara County Republican Central Committee, named Mrs. Henry T. Miller of Campbell as county coordinator for all precinct work at the regular meeting of the central committee this week.

Mrs. Miller is widely known in Republican circles for her outstanding work as Campbell chairman of the Knowland Committee for the 1952 primary election and her activity on both the Gubser and Allen committees. She has also served during the past year as president of the Campbell Council of Republican Women and is at present a member of the State Central Committee and an associate member of the Santa Clara County Republican Central Committee.

In her acceptance of the appointment Mrs. Miller stressed the importance of precinct work in a county growing and developing as fast as this one and said she would appreciate suggestions to facilitate the huge job ahead.

Mrs. Henry Frank, vice-chairman of the central committee serving as chairman for the meeting, read a letter from Congressman Charles S. Gubser advising the committee of the availability of a colored film and sound track of the inauguration. The non-partisan film will be introduced by the local congressman, in this case Gubser, and will be made available to schools, civic organizations and service clubs throughout the county.

Congratulations and best wishes were heartily given to A. Ruric Todd of Saratoga, newly-appointed deputy state controller. Todd, a former member of the central committee, expressed his appreciation and told members of some of the duties of the new position.

Committee members unanimously decided to plan the traditional fall barbecue for members, associates and guests with committees to be appointed by Chairman Robert Free.

Mrs. Frank, publicity chairman of the central committee, announced the appointment of Mrs. Jane Cugel of Los Gatos as her co-chairman and the foundation of a speakers bureau to serve all Republican organizations within the county.

Large Crowd Attends Rosemary Playday At School

More than 250 attended the Rosemary Home & School Club Picnic-playday Tuesday evening at the Rosemary School. The event marked the last meeting of the club for this year. A father-son softball game began at 6:00 P. M., with kickball, relays, tetherball, volleyball, and other games provided for other visitors and students. Picnic dinner was served in the school patio, followed by a variety show put on by 6th grade students in appreciation for the recent graduation party given them by the club. The evening was concluded with cartoon movies for primary students, folk dancing and ballroom dancing for all. Bob Ostermeier's orchestra provided the popular music for ballroom dancing.

City Asks For Fire District Share In Cash

City of Campbell is still battling for its share of apportionment of Central Fire District's Funds, and it wants it in cash. City attorney Joseph A. Bonacina told the Board of Supervisors Monday.

The district asked for a board resolution granting permission to pay off the city in equipment rather than cash, but Bonacina quoted the law to back up his contention that Campbell was entitled to money and not "depreciated and obsolete" equipment.

Bonacina said the city was entitled to repayment of outstanding funds made into the district for the fiscal year in which Campbell became an incorporated city.

Board Chairman Joseph M. McKinnon said there would be very little cash involved, since Campbell became an incorporated city as of March 28, 1952 and the fiscal year ends in June.

The board referred the matter to the County Executive for investigation and report.

THE WORLD AT A GLANCE

by Edward Clayton
FATHER'S DAY—On Sunday, June 21, he will probably be allowed to sleep a little later than usual—that is, unless the family just can't wait to "shower" him with a bright new necktie that would match his purple suit, which fortunately he hasn't got. On June 21, he will also be given a respite from all jobs around the house. The painting of the garage doors (let's see, he was going to do that last November) will be allowed to go for another week. And as to repairing the basement stairs—well, nobody has broken a leg on them YET. They'll also wait a little longer. Then there will be other little courtesies extended. For instance, the teen-agers in the family will speak to him. They will

QUITO SCHOOL DADS MEET

The Quito school Dads Club met on Thursday evening, June 11th for their final regular meeting of the school year. An enthusiastic group of dads were present to discuss and evaluate the activities of the present year, and plans were made regarding the first meeting in the fall.

Items discussed included accomplishments for the year, including the purchase of the kindergarten play ground equipment, construction of the soft ball backstop, and the landscaping of the school area.

Thank you letters from the kindergarten children were presented to the group, and plans were made for the 2nd back-stop to be constructed during the summer.

Mrs. Dorothy Sutter, principal of Quito school, expressed her appreciation for the splendid cooperation and out-standing enthusiasm of this group through out the year.

Mother will also get into the spirit of things by baking him a pie, the kind he likes. And he may even get a piece of it. In fact, it may be that by the end of the day he will feel that his family has accepted him. Of course, Monday is another day.

Enrollment For Boy Scout Camp

A record enrollment of 534 Boy Scouts and Explorers has been set for the 1953 Hi-Sierra Camp of the local Boy Scout Council, according to Fred Hilton, Chairman of the Council Camping Committee. These boys have signed from 31 Troops of the Council area, and will add at least 50 volunteer adult leaders to the camp enrollment.

Camp will open on June 28th and continue for at least six one week periods. Enrollments are still being received at the Council office and plans are underway to add a 7th and 8th session to take care of the enrollment already the largest in the history of the Council.

Boys may attend camp by Troops under their own adult leadership. The local Council provides a staff of trained men to assist the leaders in carrying out their camping program. Field Executive Allen Gerbick will be the resident Camp Director, with Harold Alexander and Mark Judy of the Council staff serving during part of the camping season as program directors.

Camp Hi-Sierra is located near Long Barn on the north fork of the Tuolumne River. The site of 300 acres is owned by the Boy Scout Memorial Foundation which has provided camping facilities including a modern kitchen and dining room, tents and cots for sleeping quarters, a well equipped health lodge, two shower houses, boats for the lake on the property and a complete water system.

Chairman Milton urges all Unit Leaders who have not signed up for a camping area to do so at an early date. Two sessions have already reached the maximum number of 100 boys.

The U. S. Navy's hydrographic office has reported that for comparable latitudes the Pacific Ocean is generally rougher than the Atlantic. This is because of greater expanses of open water in the Pacific, which permit waves to build up higher with identical wind forces.

CAMPBELL HI-LIGHTS

by Bob Olson

Every Campbell high school boy has been in Room 31 at least once this past school year. Perhaps he needed an absence for illness verified, or an off-the-grounds slip to keep an important engagement during school hours, or a permit to park his car on school property. Or perhaps he was having a discipline problem or needed a bit of counseling on how to get along with others. In any of these events, he more than likely talked things over with our Dean of Boys, Larry Newberry. No one I've ever met in education could better serve your boy. No one at Campbell High School has a tougher or more significant job to do, and no-one works harder or more conscientiously at it.

I first met Larry Newberry this year, but I'd heard about him already four years ago. Upon coming to California as an "immigrant from Wisconsin," I lived on a farm near Modesto. My landlord there was a philosophical old grape farmer, Corey Newberry, who kept bragging about his "son over at Stanford." Though Corey is an honest man as well as a wise one, I thought his high praises were merely being sung by a doting parent. And then this year I met Larry and found him all that he'd been paternally advertised.

Perhaps you have too. Surely you've heard him sing with the faculty trio which bills him as the "Poor man's Homer" of Homer and Jethree. Or perhaps you've seen him hit a homer when he was out playing baseball with the boys. Or maybe you've been in to talk with him about your boy.

I've talked things over with him about some of "my boys" this year, and it was a revelation to me and the boy involved to enjoy the presence of such an outstanding mediator. When this happens, we both appreciate his fairness and tolerance, but, most of all, the way he listens. This may seem an odd thing to say, but few people (especially in education) really

THE CRACKER BARREL

Oh! Oh! What a terrible thing—I almost forgot to write you this week, but here I am.

Now, listen partners, thank you a whole lot for your business. You know we really appreciate it... and folks, I was thinkin' the other day... you know people used to go to Church a lot. They used to take the kids and go to Sunday School and worship God. And you know there ought to be more Church-going these days. So why don't you go to Church this Sunday and take the kids with you. Believe me, neighbors, you'll feel good for having done it. After all, this great country of ours has freedom of religion. That is great! If you could just go to any country like China or Russia and see the difference... say, friend, you'd appreciate this privilege a whole lot more. Well, 'nuff said, we'll write you more next week.

We got some dandy bargains again this week so come on in and visit us and take a good look at our low everyday prices. You'll be mighty pleased and surprised at the money you can save.

LEGION POST TO MAKE AWARDS TO GRADUATES

Special "Americanism" awards will be made to the graduating classes of Campbell Grammar, Moreland, Cambrian, and schools in the Los Gatos Union School District by Campbell Post 596, The American Legion, as part of the graduation ceremonies being conducted today.

At a special awards assembly held yesterday morning in Campbell Grammar School, Harold F. Adams, newly elected post commander, made the awards to 27 students. They were: Lee Shimmin, Donald Duntun, Fred Sprague, Tony Garza, Bruce Knox, Jerry Long, Eugen Andres, Norman Ice, Nancy Schraub, Betty Patterson, Donna Elichuk, June Yamamoto, Ann Gugliemetti, Martia Parks, Judith Clark and Christine Anderson.

Dictionaries were awarded to other outstanding students who possessed the character traits necessary for the "Americanism" awards given by the Legion. Runners up in Campbell Grammar School were: Michael Browne, Paul Gregory, Arthur Hill, Jack Epperson, Cris Cavallaro, Alan Peters, Donald Hunter, James Keech, Sharon Hare, Joanne Brunsin, and Lona Little.

As part of today's graduation ceremonies at A. G. Knowles, past commander of the Campbell Post will make the awards at Moreland School; Hugh Nelson, Jr. Legion member, will present the awards at Cambrian school graduation exercises and Z. D. Tension, past post commander will make the presentation at Union Elementary School.

listen at all anymore. Most of us are convinced that what we have to say is so important. No so, Larry: he's a listener first and an expert second.

Mr. Newberry came to Campbell High as a classroom teacher. His major in college was U. S. History, and he has taught drivers ed., business math, general math, and freshman orientation, as well as serving as J. V. baseball coach. He has now served one year as Dean of Boys and likes it. He says, "It's been a fast-fleeting and most enjoyable year with the best group of people to work with that one could possibly imagine." He ought to know, for he is school attendance officer, attends all school functions, and is advisor to the student council and the Hi Y Council in addition to his many Room 31 duties.

Still, Mr. N. somehow finds time to be a normal family man too. He and his wife, Donna, have a beautiful home just a few blocks from school, full of some mighty comfortable furniture, some very interesting reading matter, and three healthy kids: Dean, five, Judy, two, and the baby, Jimmy, who is only one The Newberry's first met when both were high schoolers themselves in Stanislaus County, being drawn together through the Methodist Youth Fellowship. Their courtship took place mostly by mail when Larry served in the U. S. Air Forces (weather) in the Caribbean theater. They were married in July of 1946, before Larry received his M. A. in education at Stanford. Donna is a Stanford graduate, too, having an A. B. and having served as an R. N.

Soon the Newberry's will be back in the Valley on one of their "farm vacations," for the grandparents on both sides of the family now live on farms only a mile apart. This, of course, offers the grandchildren wonderful opportunities for tractor rides, vineyard romps, and fresh-peach-picking sessions.

So you see, our Dean is quite a guy with quite a family. I've suggested that he do some writing, for he really has a lot of good ideas he might well share with others. Your boy likes him, and so do the rest of us. And Larry likes your boy, finding him "conscientious about his attendance, on his good behaviour at all times, and interested in a wide range of extra-curricular activities as well as his studies. He's developing those leadership qualities so important in day-to-day living." Yes, he is. And you can rest assured that he has some fine models to emulate—like our extraordinary Dean of Boys!

Prune Marketing Policy Delayed

The Prune Administrative Committee, at its meeting on June 15th, voted unanimously to delay formulation of its marketing policy for 1953 crop prunes until July 14th when crop and market conditions can be more accurately estimated. R. W. Jewell, Manager of the Committee which administers the Federal Prune Marketing Order, announced today.

While it does not appear now that any surplus will develop in the 1953 prune crop, Jewell stated, the Committee felt that it should wait another thirty days before finally determining the actual size and quality of the crop now estimated at 133,000 tons.

In 1952, the production was 134,000 tons, with a normal carry-over of 20,500 tons from the 1951 crop, to make a total supply of 155,200 tons natural condition weight. The Committee now estimates that by the first of August, 136,500 tons of the 1952 supply will have been shipped, leaving a carry-over into the new crop year of about 20,000 tons. Unless the 1953 crop turns out to be appreciably greater than is presently estimated, the Committee feels reasonably sure that there should be no major problem in marketing the new crop.

Jewell added that the Committee, in keeping with its policy of quality improvement, has urged the Secretary to establish its recommended grade specifications to minimize the marketing of prunes with glaring defects.

The Committee will meet on July 14, 1953 to decide what prunes, if any, need to be set aside to implement the orderly marketing of the 1953 crop.

MUSIC PROGRAM IS ENJOYED BY CAMPBELL ROTARY

The music students ranged in grade from third through sixth; and in age from nine through 12 years. Members of the orchestra who participated in Monday's concert were: Susan Prior, Donna Isaksen, Nancy Rice, Marjorie Bush, Nellyn Purcell, Jean Voytek, Sherry Mulsow, Judy Rouse, Scott Turner, Norman Guilbert, Judy Hughes, Noralyn Marshall, Ronald Miller, Jeff Ammon, Bruce Brown, Stanley Meleen, Robert Meleen, Larry Carre, Ronald Stone, and Gary Brown.

The Rotary-Kiwanis softball game has been postponed indefinitely, according to Cel Gerevas, who has been handling Rotary participation, due to the expected absences of several players who will be on vacation.

It was announced at Monday's Rotary meeting that spots have been marked for additional street signs such as are now posted along Campbell Ave.

Ralph Hyde will be the speaker for the next Rotary meeting Monday. He has been scheduled to show some of the pictures in color that he has taken while on vacation.
